

SUPERINTENDENT BORK GETS HANDSOME CAR

He Needed It in His Business, but Is a Bit Chesty Over Its Possession.

The Hamilton county hospital is sporting a bright new motor ambulance, which is in charge of Assistant Superintendent J. R. C. Watson. The new car is a Velle six-cylinder, and is the pride of Supt. W. L. Bork's charge. Mr. Watson stated that Mr. Bork examined a large number of automobiles, giving them all a full trial before he made a purchase. Mr. Watson said that at the present there are eighty-two patients at the county hospital and they are all doing as nicely as possible. Some changes have been made at the hospital along the line of improvements and every thing now is as comfortable as possible for the patients.

COMING TO VISIT HIS FATHER AND MOTHER

Capt. E. D. Watkins, surgeon at Camp Gordon, is expected here tonight on a furlough of four days, which he will spend visiting his mother and father, Mrs. and Col. Ed Watkins.

MAJ. COOK GOES TO HOT SPRINGS FOR TREATMENT

Maj. L. H. Cook, head of the intelligence office at Fort Oglethorpe, leaves Camp Forrest for Hot Springs, Ark., where he will take the baths for rheumatism. Maj. Cook will take his family with him. He will remain in Hot Springs for a month, during which time he says he hopes to get fit to go across.

RAILROAD CASE STILL PENDING IN CIRCUIT COURT

The case of W. L. McGuire against the Tennessee, Alabama & Georgia railroad is still being heard in the circuit court. The case consumed the entire day Thursday and will probably continue until Friday afternoon.

McGuire, who was a switchman for the railroad company, asks for $5,000 as the result of injuries he received while coupling two cars in defendant company's yards. He claimed the accident was the result of negligence of defendant.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS FILED IN CHANCERY

Husband in One Case and Wife in Other Seek Separation of Marital Ties.

Two divorce suits were filed in chancery court Friday morning, one being asked for by a wife and the other by a husband.

Mrs. Dollie Walters charged her husband, Fred E. Walters, with wilful and continued desertion. They have two children and the wife asks for the custody of them both. The present whereabouts of the husband is unknown. Rankin & Frazier represent the plaintiff.

The other divorce asked for is on the grounds of desertion and is asked for by Walter Taylor against his wife, Lila Taylor. This suit was filed through W. J. Counts.

ARGUMENT OF DAMAGE SUIT HEARD BY GARVIN

Chancellor W. B. Garvin heard the argument Friday morning in the case of West Construction company against the Seaboard Airline railroad. At the conclusion of the argument the chancellor took the case under advisement. The plaintiff was represented by George D. Lancaster and the defendants by Joe Brown. The suit is for $3,000 for damages done some material belonging to the plaintiff company.

The construction company claims that it shipped a carload of asphalt from Bartow, Fla., to Chattanooga and at some point along the railroad a collision occurred and the car containing the asphalt was completely wrecked. The asphalt was being shipped here for the purpose of paving Vance avenue and the construction company charged that the delay cost them $3,000.
